WANTED – EXPERIENCED BAND MANAGER

ROCK 'N' ROLL

“★★★★★”

‘One of the best groups you will ever see’

Steve Judd – judge at Unsigned Bands 2014

We are the next big thing, without a doubt. Why not get on board the train and join us on our journey to Rock ‘N’ Roll stardom? We are a five-piece band called Rock ‘N’ Roll, and we are already making waves in the music industry. We now wish to find a Band Manager who will take us to the next level. Are you connected? Join us and we will make history together (just as long as you don’t try to change our line up and look).

If you are the right person to roll with us, you will need to prove that you have great organisational skills, as we plan to embark on a nationwide tour next year. Your job will be to organise the whole thing, so you need to be able to keep a calm head whilst everyone around you loses theirs. We need a huge audience to be invited to each gig and support bands who won’t blow us off stage!

More importantly, do you know the bigwigs from the broadcast media, the head honchos from those record labels? We want them all there.

Knowledge of the industry is essential if you are to get the job, and the ability to negotiate those boring (but all important) contracts with publishers, record companies and venues is crucial. Let us get on with our jobs of making awesome music, while you get us the best contracts you possibly can.

We are the only band you need – are you the Manager we need?
